NEW SINGLE OUT JUNE 10th 2022

Layers of chopped vocals and harmonies over organs, synths & beats. I'm calling it SlowPop.

Written, recorded, produced & mixed in my home studio. A song about acceptance of the end of a relationship. That even if it wasn't my choice, it Had to be Over. As with many of my songs it is one of sadness but also of hope.

Laura Donnelly is a singer, songwriter & producer based in Glasgow, Scotland and former Laki Mera & God's Boyfriend front woman.

The first release since debut solo album 'Let Your Listening Be Wide'

August 2020.
